GOOD NEWS AROUND CAMPUS: Breakfast with Santa last week was a stellar hit all thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the many volunteers for our American Heritage Girls; Our staff and students, grades 2-8, gave cause for all of Heaven to rejoice yesterday as 6 priests offered their time and care of our souls by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation; Our IHM Family grew by one last week: The Swords Family welcomed little Tessa on December 6 and is reported to be “the easiest (so-far) of their three”; “The Triplets” have been home and thriving and thanks be to God, their Mom, Dim San Lun, has recovered from an harrowing post-delivery illness; A mystery staff person shared news they are to become a grandma again but it’s too early to announce ...stay tuned; At this writing, we are still anxiously awaiting news of deliveries, as Mrs. Caldwell is still “with twins;” Our prayers for baby Levi Schemper are being answered in the affirmative and he is making steady progress towards full health-- the family has been gratefully carried by your prayers and donations; Grammie Sandy Lowery is back on course with her cancer treatment, wrapped warm in our fervent family rosary blanket of prayers; Jesus was adored throughout the Diocese of Grand Rapids simultaneously Tuesday night, as any church with a priest in residence, exposed Him for us to adore Him between 7-8pm.

Hello IHM Families!

On this last day of school before break, I wish you all a Christmas full of joy and peace and a truly restful break with lots of family time! There seems to be a lot of illness going around, so stay healthy and get some rest!

It was a special blessing this week for the 2nd graders to receive their first Reconciliation and for grades three through eight to have the opportunity to participate in the sacrament during Advent. What a special afternoon!

The classrooms have been preparing and the kids are busy making gifts for their parents. They are so excited to give you all their special, hard work!

Enjoy the last week of Advent and have a Merry Christmas!

Blessings,

*Blessings,
