Home & School Association had a busy fall season!
Thank you to all of the parents and family members for your ongoing engagement, support, and funding for IHM School!

Fall 2022 Home & School Association events in review...

- ★ Fall 2022 “A Night Under Canvas” was a huge success and raised over $160,000! We met our “Fund-A-Need” goal to update and enhance our security system throughout our school, as well as the H&S operating budget needs!
- ★ Fall Roller Skating Party was back by popular demand with over 60 kids in attendance!
- ★ The fall Pumpkin Carving event was once again a fantastic family experience filled with lots of fun for the whole family!

In Fall of 2022 the H&S Association was able to fund and support many tools and experiences for education enrichment...

- ★ Spiritual Growth committee provided rosaries for each student at IHM from Preschool through 8th grade
- ★ Flex seating was provided to the 2nd grade classrooms
- ★ Conferences luncheon was provided for our amazing teachers
- ★ The beautiful decor and staging was funded for the Christmas concert
- ★ A quiet “Peace Corner” was funded for the preschool and enrichment classroom
- ★ A new projector was funded for band classes
- ★ Grades 6th-8th were able to engage in a poetry workshop with ArtPrize winner William Davis
- ★ Funded assistive technology to help our students with Dyslexia and Dysgraphia

Auction 2022 “Fund-A-Need” Update

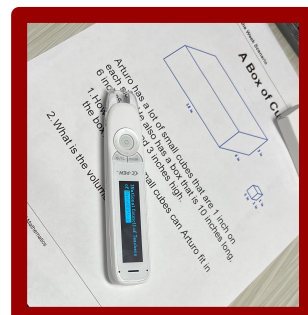

Principal Lake has been busy putting into action updated security measures and technology throughout the school thanks to all the contributors at “A Night Under Canvas” Auction!

Current updates include scheduling installation of new phones and phone cabling, completion of key cards for entry into school facilities, and the new sound systems for all the classrooms have been ordered. IHM’s incredible maintenance staff is eagerly waiting their arrival for installation!
